Beloved Maestro

As you well
know, a lowly layman such as I should not have the temerity to use the inelegant phrase you attribute to me. It was a most delightful concert. Had it ended with the piccolo concerto one of your patrons
would have been happier.

Your newly invented

language evoked
sleak of jolly mirth
in our household
and will become a
treasured memento.
Saully I had a
lock of your hair.

And a happy
heasep to you too.
I would advise against the ingestion of too much hoxtam as it
can be upsetting.
With much admiration,
respect and love
Janet
